Note.—A person acquires a domicile in Mysore when he has voluntarily fixed the habitation of himself and his family therein, not for mere special or temporary purposes, but with the present intention of making it his permanent home. [Note.—In the case of candidates who are employed under Government, an extract from the Service Register showing the date of birth certified by the Head of the Office in which the candidate is employed that it is a true extract may be produced in lieu of the certificates mentioned above.]

IV. Applications together with the necessary certificates should be addressed to the Registrar, High Court. Except officials employed in the High Court Office who may present their applications direct to the Registrar before a date to be fixed therefor by the High Court, all other applicants should send their applications before the said date to the District Judges concerned, who will forward them to the Registrar, High Court, with their opinion as regards the efficiency, capacity and suitability of the candidates to hold the post of a judicial officer.

V. Candidates suitable for being nominated as Munsiffs will be selected by the Judges of the High Court from among the applicants, by first selecting a larger number than required, having regard to the applicants' experience at the Bar or in service and the testimonials produced along with their applications as regards their general ability, legal knowledge and aptitude for judicial work ; and next by a further selection of the required number by

(1) a practical test of writing judgments, and

(2) interview, if necessary.

The practical test is not meant to be a competitive examination but is only for the purpose of the High Court satisfying itself as to the fitness and suitability of the candidate to hold the post of judicial officer. The names of candidates finally selected will be entered in the lists ; nominations for Munsiffs' posts will ordinarily be made from such lists, having regard to the proportion which the Government may fix from time to time in the matter of communal representation.

VI. Persons appointed as Munsiffs should be on probation for a total period of one year. They will not be confirmed, unless during the period of probation:—

(1) they pass the Registration Examination except in the case of those that have taken the LL.B. Degree of the Bombay University, and Revenue Higher Examination of the Mysore Local Service Examinations, and also an examination in the Kannada language prescribed by the Government for Judicial Officers and persons admitted into the Mysore Civil Service, if they have not taken Kannada as their optional or second language in any University or other recognised public examination and even though their mother tongue is Kannada; and

(2) the High Court is satisfied about their character, behaviour, capacity to record evidence with facility and properly appreciate it, legal equipment and knowledge of practical details.

It is open to the High Court to extend the period of probation for such period as it thinks fit, if within the prescribed period of one year the officer fails to pass the required tests and satisfy the High Court about his fitness for confirmation. If, after the expiry of the prescribed period of probation for one year, there is a vacancy to be filled up permanently or by a provisionally permanent or substantive-pro-tempore arrangement, and it is found that, by that time, the Munsiff on probation who is in the run for being absorbed in such vacancy has not qualified himself by passing the required tests and satisfying the High Court as regards his fitness for confirmation as Munsiff, he will be passed over in favour of one who is so qualified, irrespective of the fact that the period of probation has been specially extended by the High Court. If within the expiry of the period of probation for one year unless it is extended, or within the extended period of probation, if any, he has not qualified himself and is not found fit he is liable to vacate his appointment if recruited from the Bar or to revert to the post he occupied at the time of his appointment, if recruited from the ministerial establishment.

VII. These rules shall take the place of the rules published in the High Court Notification No. R.Dis. 5—44-45, dated 23rd November 1944, and shall come into force at once.

Note.—These revised rules as regards confirmation apply also to the present incumbents who are still acting as Munsiffs.
